Duration of the Course: 1 January to 5 February, 2022
Academic Year: 2021-22

Report: AY 2021-22

Dept. of History, with the concept of understanding advanced methodologies of history, announced its certificate course on 'Introduction to Archaeology'. The course was designed for learners from UG and PG department. Around 100 students were enrolled for this certificate course.

On the 1st January 2021, the course was inaugurated by the hands of our Hon. Principal Dr. Yojana Jugale. On the same day, Dr. Niranjana Kulkarni (HOD, Dept. of History) made students aware of the entire course structure and its objectives.

The course was completed after 30 contact sessions. Thus, it makes six contact sessions for one unit. Major part of the contact sessions was handled by Dr. Niranjana Kulkarni (Coordinator of the course); whereas, all the faculty members of Dept. of History participated in group discussion. After completing each unit, a separate session was reserved for overall summation and general discussion on the completed units.

After the course, the performance of students was evaluated by conducting a test (50 Marks). They attempted 25 MCQ, 2 marks for each question. The test was conducted on 10 February, 2022.

On 12 February 2022, the result was declared and the performances of students were appreciated by Hon. Principal through honoring them with certificates. On these days, some of the students shared their experiences. We observed that they have a general understanding of Archaeology. They are also trained in various stages of archaeological investigation. Besides, they came to know career opportunities in archaeology and where they stand now. At the same time, the moral of Heritage conservation was inculcated in their hearts, successfully.
