Brief Report (4 to 5 lines in English only)	Reading Resolution Maharashtra 2025 Concluding Ceremony and National Seminar: The celebration of Reading Resolution Maharashtra 2025 fortnight was concluded with an online national seminar on “Reading Habits and E-Information Tools” jointly organized by the College Library Department, IQAC Department and Marathi Language Department as well as Late Rasika College on 15/01/2025. Prof. Dr. Vaishali Chaukhande Madam, Head of the Department of Library and Information Science, Amravati University, and Prof. Dr. Jagdish Kulkarni of Swa.R.T.M. University, Nanded were invited as the main guides for this national seminar. Prof. Chaukhande Madam said that students should give importance to reading in their daily lives. In the era of mobile technology, we should maintain our reading habit. While mentioning Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's advice that 'If you read, you will understand', if we want to become intellectually and mentally strong, we must read. If we read 15 pages every day, our vocabulary increases to a great extent and we can express ourselves effectively. Prof. Dr. Jagdish Kulkarni should plan every month of the year and take initiatives from the library to increase the reading interest of students, which will attract students to the library and create a love of reading. On the behalf of college the Principals of both the colleges, Prof. Dr. Niranjana Kulkarni and Dr. C.B. Javale, gave their best wishes for this initiative. The introduction was given by Dr. Sontakke S.N. and the vote of thanks was expressed by Prof. Dr. Balaji A. Kamble, Librarian, Hon. Shri.
